

'Getting the most from your cardiac CT Scanner'
Royal Bournemouth Hospital, Castle Lane East, Bournemouth
BH7 7DW
Saturday, 25th September 2010

- 8.45-9.15 Registration and coffee
- 9.15-9.30 Introduction
Dr Russell Bull, Consultant Radiologist, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
Chairman: Dr Roger Patel, Consultant Radiologist, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 9.30-9.45 Cardiac CT technology – 64 slice and above
Dr Russell Bull, consultant Radiologist, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 9.45-10.30 Clinical applications of cardiac CT
Dr Johannes Radvan, Consultant Cardiologist, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 10.30-11.00 Coffee/Tea
- 11.00-12.00 Patient preparation, set-up and scanning
Mr Matthew Benbow, CT & MRI superintendent, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 12.00-12.30 Cardiac CT case on Aquilion One (video)
Matthew Benbow/Russell Bull, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 12.30-1.15 Lunch
- 1.15-2.00 Live cases reading
Dr Roger Patel Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 2.00-2.45 Techniques for dose reduction in cardiac CT
Mr Matthew Benbow, CT & MRI superintendent, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 2.45-3.30 Interactive cardiac CT cases
Dr Aparna Acharya, Cardiac Radiology Fellow, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 3.30-4.15 Top tips for perfect cardiac CT – what we have learnt since 2004
Dr Russell Bull, consultant Radiologist, Royal Bournemouth Hospital
- 4.15-4.30 Final discussion and close